

MILLERSBURG

—R. K. Judy, of Middlesboro, visited relatives here this week.
—Miss Louise Auxier, of Carlisle, is visiting H. Dalzell and family.
—Miss Louise Grayot, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. Julian Allen.

—Julian Adair, of Ashland, is with his grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Norton.

—Mrs. Mary Hayden, of Lexington, is visiting W. D. McIntyre and family.

—Mrs. Isaac Brown has returned from a two-weeks' stay at Martinsville, Ind.

—Mrs. Byers, of Oklahoma, is visiting Mrs. Sallie Miller. Mrs. Byers was formerly Miss Julia Evans, who lived here.

—C. W. Howard and wife, of Lexington, are visiting W. D. McIntyre and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Butler have returned from a visit with relatives in Augusta.

—Miss Nancy Allen, of Winchester, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frankie Cook.

—Prof. and Mrs. A. P. Prather, of Columbia, are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Whaley.

—Miss Pauline Prather, of Cynthia, has returned home after a visit to Mrs. Robt. Turner.

—Master James Billy Leer entertained about twenty-five of his little friends Friday, the occasion being his eighth birthday.

—Mrs. E. S. Barton was called to the bedside of her father, J. W. Overley, of Flemingsburg, who is seriously ill.

—Everybody is going to the Chautauqua, so get busy and don't be the one who is left. This promises to be the best we have ever had. Remember the date, June 30 to July 5.

—At a meeting of the promoters of the Chautauqua, the following committee was re-elected: W. D. McIntyre, President; J. F. McDaniel, Vice-President; W. A. Butler, Secretary; S. M. Allen, Treasurer.

—The "Wide Awake" Club will meet at the Millersburg High School library on Thursday, June 23, for the Club trip in the autos to the Lexington State University Junior Club convention. Bring your lunch for spread on the University campus.

—Col. C. M. Best has gone to Lexington, Va., to attend commencement exercises at V. M. I. Cadet Harry Roche, nephew of Mrs. Best, graduates from V. M. I. Wednesday. This is also Col. Best's thirty-fifth class anniversary. Quite a coincidence that Cadet Roche should have occupied the same room Col. Best did thirty-five years ago. Cadet Roche receives, besides his diploma from V. M. I., a special certificate in artillery. This places him for Second Lieutenant in the Regular Army. Wm. Best Hessdine, also a nephew of Col. Best, won the second highest scholarship at Washington-Lee University, which is $200. He stands fourth among the 700 students and besides, made the highest record in history that has been made in the last fifteen years. John Miller, also a former graduate of M. M. I., carried honors in the graduating class at Washington-Lee this year. This is quite an honor for our Kentucky boys and former graduates of M. M. I., and we are justly proud of them.

DEATHS.

PARKER

—The funeral of Mrs. Cordelia Parker, aged seventy-three, who died Thursday afternoon, was held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at St. Peter's Episcopal church, with impressive services conducted by the rector, Rev. W. S. Cain, assisted by Rev. George H. Harris, of Versailles, former rector of the Paris church. The interment took place in the family lot in the Paris Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Joe Varden, White Varden, Blair Varden, Wm. G. Talbott, John Yerkes and Hugh I. Brent.

CARRINGTON

—James R. Carrington, aged about forty, died at his home in Carlisle, Friday night, after a protracted illness. He was a former resident of Paris and was a charter member of Bourbon Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics.

The funeral was held in Carlisle, Sunday afternoon the interment taking place in the Carlisle Cemetery. Thirty-five members of Bourbon Council went to Carlisle in autos Sunday afternoon, and conducted the committal services at the grave.

SMITH

—John D. Smith, aged fifty-four, prominent Fayette county farmer, and turfman, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, Sunday afternoon, from the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was taken suddenly ill in a restaurant, and was hurried to the Hospital, where his death ensued a few minutes after arriving.

Mr. Smith was a brother-in-law of Otis Bacon, formerly of Paris. He is survived by three sisters and four brothers. Mr. Smith had for years been a successful farmer and had been identified with the thoroughbred interests of Lexington and Fayette county.

The funeral was held at the residence in Lexington yesterday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. Mark Collis. The interment followed on the family lot in the Lexington Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Felix Kennedy, Chas. Bascom, Peter Gentry, Millard Wilson, Chas. S. Darnaby, Ben Darnaby, Isaac Wilmott and Virgil Galtskill.

TYREE

—James Tyree, aged eighty-nine, father of Clyde Tyree, of Paris, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, Friday morning, after a protracted illness due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Tyree was born in Rockcastle county, and was formerly a resident of Harrison county. In late years he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Jameson, in Lexington.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nancy Tyree; four children, Clyde Tyree, of Paris; Mrs. Eliza Lowe, Mrs. Frank Jameson and Mrs. Wm. Martin, all of Lexington; Gussie Tyree, of Texas, and William Tyree, of Newport.

The funeral was held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Jameson, in Lexington, Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. D. Clay Lilly, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Lexington. The interment followed on the family lot in the Lexington Cemetery.

LEWIS

—Of a once large family residing in Bourbon county, one of the numerous branches of the Lewis family, there is now but one living, Howard Lewis, who resides in Oneida, Arkansas.

The daily papers chronicle the death in Little Rock, Arkansas, on June 9, of Frank C. Lewis, formerly of Paris.

Mr. Lewis is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Viva Mudge, of St. Louis, Mo. He will be well-remembered by the older generation of Paris people, having been in the drug business here many years. Mr. Lewis was a son of the late Douglass Lewis, of this county, who resided on the Harrods' Creek pike, near Paris. His children were Mrs. Bettie Howard, Mrs. M. C. Chapline, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Stephen, Asa, Frank, Thomas, Douglass and Howard Lewis, the last named being the sole survivor. Frank Lewis was an accomplished musician and a genial, Dewey Kimbel, of Centre College, was elected president of the permanent organization of Southern Presbyterian Young People of Kentucky, and Miss Elizabeth McPherson, of Tompkinsville, was elected secretary and treasurer at the meeting which closed at Danville last week. Other officers were elected for the various Presbyteries and it was decided to come together in an annual conference such as this once a year. The time and place of this meeting will be set later, but Danville may become the permanent home of this conference.

The twentieth annual assembly of the Kentucky Conference Epworth League of the Methodist church will convene to-night in the Mt. Sterling Methodist church, and will continue through the evening of Friday, June 24. Paris will be represented by Dennis V. Snapp, president, who will preside; his secretary, Miss Ruth Woodward; Misses Elizabeth Lilles-ton, Frances Greer, Virginia Hancock and Lena Cooper. Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church, will attend the opening sessions to-day. The sessions will open at 8:00 o'clock. At 8:25 President Dennis V. Snapp will deliver his address, "My Brother." With this meeting Mr. Snapp closes his quadrennial service as President of the State organization. The delegates will be guests of the people of Mt. Sterling during their stay.
